

ALDIE HARVEST FESTIVAL

On Saturday,
October 16

Take a drive in the country ...

... travel
back in time.

Rediscover
the simple pleasures of village life in rural Virginia.

Join Us For ...

FREE Moonbounce, face painting, pony rides, crafts and games for kids

Church bake sale, Finger-lickin' food

Duck Race at the Aldie Fire Department

A demonstration of grinding grain at the Aldie Mill

Local Artisans and Craft Vendors

The village of Aldie enjoys a rich, 200-year-old heritage. The village grew up in the early 1800s around the Aldie Mill. It occupies what was then a strategic location at one of the gaps in the Bull Run Mountains, through which travelers and commerce could move west along Little River Turnpike toward Middleburg, Upperville and the Blue Ridge.

Aldie, Virginia
October 16, 2009
9:00 am — 5:00 pm

Directions: West on Route 50 into Loudoun County to Gilbert's Corner (intersection of Routes 50 and 15). Aldie is one mile west of Gilbert's Corner on Route 50.

ADMISSION IS FREE. PARKING: $5 DONATION TO SUPPORT OUTREACH.

*Brought to you by the churches, merchants and residents of Aldie, VA. For more information:
703.327.4060.*